

June, 2011

Dear Middle School Parents/Guardians and Students,

Attached is the list of the required summer reading. Each student is to read any two (2) books from his/her grade level prior to his/her return to Resurrection Catholic School in August.

Students, when you have completed reading the required books, you are to fill in the form below. You are to return it to your literature teacher the first week of school in August.

Parents, please fill in your signature on the form below to verify your child has read the required books.

Sincerely yours,
Middle School Literature Teachers

I verify that I have read the following books this summer of 2011
